Paragraphs 32 and 33 should read

32. The members of the Committee generally expressed the view that its method of work normally should allow for attempts to reach decisions by consensus before voting, provided that the Covenant and the rules of procedure are observed and that such attempts do not unduly delay the work of the Committee.

33. Bearing in mind paragraph 32, the Chairman may at any meeting, and at the request of any member shall, put the proposal to a vote.
