CERD Committee Members

The CERD Committee consists of 18 members, serving in their personal capacity. For details about all CERD members, see: <http://www.ohchr.org/EN/HRBodies/CERD/Pages/Membership.aspx>

Venue

The 93rd session of the Committee will take place in Geneva at the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights, Palais Wilson, Ground floor conference room.

Participation of NHRIs

The Committee examines all periodic reports in public meetings which NHRIs representatives can attend. The Committee recognizes the important role that NHRIs play in combating racism and racial discrimination. In its General Recommendation 28, paragraph 2 (a), the Committee recommended that NHRIs assist their respective States to comply with their reporting obligations and closely monitor the follow-up to the concluding observations and recommendations of the Committee.

NHRIs reports

The Committee welcomes written information submitted by NHRIs in relation to the implementation of the Convention by States parties whose reports are to be considered. NHRIs reports which follow the same form of presentation as the reports submitted by the States parties concerned are particularly welcome.

Furthermore, according to the Committee's rules of procedure (Rule 40, paragraph 2), NHRIs accredited to take part in the deliberations of the Human Rights Council may, with the consent of the concerned State party, address the Committee in plenary on issues related to the dialogue between the Committee and a State party, on the second day of the consideration of the report.

All submissions to CERD should:

1. Be submitted in English, French or Spanish. As most Committee members use English as their preferred working language, documents submitted in French and Spanish should, to the extent possible, be translated into English. Please note that the UN Secretariat does not translate documents submitted by NHRIs.
2. Be transmitted to the CERD Secretariat preferably before 7 July 2017 for the information to be more likely taken into account by the country rapporteur as well as the other Committee members.
3. Be transmitted to the CERD Secretariat electronically on CERD@ohchr.org before 7 July 2017 (hard copies not needed).

Informal meetings

NHRIs representatives who do not address the Committee in official meetings (in the absence of accreditation at the Human Rights Council) are welcome to attend the plenary sessions as observers. They may have informal meetings with the Committee members to present country-specific information on States parties whose reports are before the Committee.

NHRIs representatives are kindly requested to contact the CERD Secretariat (cerd@ohchr.org) preferably before 7 July 2017 to confirm their attendance.

CERD Concluding observations

Following the consideration of the States parties' reports during the 93rd CERD session, the Committee will formulate concluding observations that will assist the States parties concerned in the implementation of the Convention. These concluding observations outline positive aspects, principal subjects or concerns and the Committee's recommendations on how to address challenges faced by the States parties. Once the concluding observations have been adopted, the documents will be posted on the CERD Webpage at:
