
Advance unedited versionDistr.:General
2 August 2023Original: English
English, French and Spanish only

Human Rights CommitteeList of issues prior to the submission of the fourth periodic report of the Republic of MoldovaA. General information on the national human rights situation, including new measures and developments relating to the implementation of the Covenant

1. Please provide information on measures taken to implement the recommendations contained in the Committee's previous concluding observations (CCPR/C/MDA/CO/3), including any relevant statistical data. Please indicate which mechanisms are in place for the implementation of the Committee's Views under the Optional Protocol and provide information on measures taken to ensure full compliance with each of the Views adopted in respect of the State party.

2. Please report on any other significant developments in the legal and institutional framework within which human rights are promoted and protected that have taken place since the adoption of the Committee's previous concluding observations, including examples of cases in which the provisions of the Covenant have been referred to by national courts.

B. Specific information on the implementation of articles 1-27 of the Covenant, including with regard to the previous recommendations of the CommitteeConstitutional and legal framework within which the Covenant is implemented (art. 2)

3. In connection with the previous concluding observations (paras. 5-6) please provide information on measures taken or planned in order to ensure that individuals in the Transnistrian region can effectively enjoy their rights guaranteed under the Covenant. Please include information on any outreach to the de facto authorities in Transnistria regarding human rights issues. Please report on steps taken to guarantee access to effective remedies for residents of Transnistria.

4. In connection with the previous concluding observations (paras. 9-10) and the Committee's evaluation of the follow-up report to concluding observations (CCPR/C/131/2/add.4), please provide information on the effective implementation of the National Human Rights Action Plan for 2018-2022, including information on the human and financial resources that have been allocated, and measures undertaken or envisaged, to ensure an inclusive and participatory process for developing the next Plan. Please provide information on the monitoring and evaluation mechanism for the Plan under the responsibility of the National Human Rights Council established in 2019, including the role of Parliament and any other oversight mechanisms in place.

* Adopted by the Committee at its 138th session (26 June to 26 July 2023).

5. With reference to the previous concluding observations (paras. 7-8), please report on measures taken to ensure that the People's Advocate Office and the Equality Council are provided with adequate resources to carry out their mandates effectively, including measures to strengthen their financial independence. Please provide information on measures taken to strengthen the mandate and legal authority of the Equality Council and ensure prompt implementation of its recommendations by public authorities.

Anti-corruption measures (arts. 2 and 25)

6. Please report on measures taken to combat corruption effectively, including high-level corruption involving members of parliament, senior officials and the judiciary. Please include information on measures to ensure thorough, prompt, independent and impartial investigations and provide details of investigations undertaken into high-level corruption allegations, including any punishment imposed. Please provide information on the mechanisms in place to ensure transparency on the outcomes of corruption investigations, and measures taken to ensure the effective protection of whistleblowers. Please outline the steps taken to strengthen the mandate, independence and operational capacity of the Anti-Corruption Prosecution Office (APO), the National Anti-Corruption Centre (NAC) and the National Integrity Authority (NIA).

Non-discrimination (arts. 2, 20 and 26)

7. With reference to the previous concluding observations (paras. 11-12), please report on measures taken and progress achieved towards addressing discriminatory attitudes, hate speech and hate crimes faced by minorities in the State party, including ethnic and religious minorities, refugees, persons with disabilities and lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and intersex (LGBTI) persons. Please include information on measures taken to ensure that hate speech and hate crimes towards minorities, including the Roma and Jewish communities, and LGBTI persons, are adequately investigated, perpetrators are appropriately punished and victims are provided with effective remedies. Please report on steps taken to address misogynistic smear campaigns and hate speech targeting female politicians, such as incidents reported in the context of national elections in 2020 and 2021. Please indicate what measures have been taken to ensure that transgender individuals have access to predictable and timely procedures to modify their sex in civil status and identity documents, in line with human rights standards.

Gender equality (arts. 3 and 25–26)

8. With reference to the concluding observations of the CEDAW committee (CEDAW/C/MDA/CO/6, paras. 18-19, 26-27), and the Committee's previous recommendations (para. 14), please report on measures taken and progress achieved in increasing the representation of women at the decision-making level, including in the Government, the foreign service, the civil service and in the security and defence forces. Please provide information on steps taken to address gender stereotypes concerning the role of women in family and in society, and measures to facilitate women's access to the labour market, such as provision of affordable childcare.

States of emergency (art. 4)

9. Please provide information on the legal framework governing public emergencies, including with regard to the mandate and accountability of the Commission for Emergency Situations (CSE), and provisions in place for the declaration and lifting of a state of emergency. Please provide information on any derogations or restrictions to rights guaranteed under the Covenant made under the State of Emergency declared on 24 February 2022, including with regard to how any such measures were strictly required by and proportional to the exigencies of the situation and whether they were limited in duration, geographical coverage and material scope.

Violence against women, and domestic violence (arts. 2, 3, 6, 7 and 26)

10. With reference to the Committee's previous recommendations (para. 16), please report on progress made in preventing and combating violence against women including domestic and sexual violence, including in the context of the State party's response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Please include information on measures taken to address stereotypes which contribute to the high prevalence of psychological abuse and physical violence against women and the underreporting of cases involving such conduct, as well as other barriers to reporting including shame, fear and distrust of the police and healthcare professionals. Please report on steps taken to ensure that all allegations of domestic violence are promptly, thoroughly and effectively investigated and that perpetrators are punished with commensurate sanctions. Please provide information on measures taken to ensure that victims have access to effective remedies and means of protection, including specialised shelters and other support services, particularly in rural areas, and that victims are not re-victimised in their interactions with the justice system. Please include information on training provided to law enforcement officials, judges and prosecutors to ensure they are able to respond promptly and effectively to cases of domestic violence.

Sexual and reproductive rights (arts. 2, 6 and 7)

11. With reference to the Committee's previous concluding observations (paras. 17-18), please provide information on measures taken and progress achieved towards raising awareness and providing education on sexual and reproductive health and ensuring access to affordable contraceptives, particularly among adolescents and in rural areas. Please comment on reports that sex workers and women who use drugs often face stigma and discrimination, breaches of confidentiality, and inadequate treatment when accessing sexual and reproductive health services.

Prohibition of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment (article 7)

12. Please provide information on steps taken to ensure that all allegations of torture and ill-treatment are promptly, thoroughly and impartially investigated, that perpetrators are brought to justice and receive sanctions commensurate with the gravity of the offence, and that victims receive effective remedies and rehabilitation. Please report on steps taken to enable the Council for the Prevention of Torture to perform its function of national preventive mechanism effectively. With reference to the Committee's previous recommendations (para. 36) relating to abuse by law enforcement officials of protesters following the April 2009 elections, please provide detailed information on progress made in ensuring that those responsible are brought to justice, including those with command responsibility, and that sanctions handed down to perpetrators are commensurate with the gravity of the crimes committed. Please also provide detailed information on reparations provided to the victims, including compensation and rehabilitation.

13. With reference to the Committee's previous recommendations (para. 24) and evaluation of the follow-up report to concluding observations (CCPR/C/131/2/add.4), please explain measures taken and progress achieved towards addressing abuse and ill-treatment of persons with psychosocial and/or intellectual disabilities in residential institutions and psychiatric hospitals. Please provide detailed information on legal and operational safeguards in place relating to involuntary detention and non-consensual treatment and clarify whether non-consensual termination of pregnancy is permitted under existing legislation. Please provide information on all allegations of abuse and ill-treatment of persons with disabilities within the reporting period, including the number and nature of complaints submitted, investigations undertaken and their outcomes, including details of any reparations made to victims.

Elimination of slavery, servitude and trafficking in persons (arts. 2, 7, 8 and 26)

14. With reference to the Committee's previous concluding observations (paras. 19-20), please report on measures taken during the reporting period to combat trafficking in persons, including trafficking of children. In particular, please describe the measures taken to: (a) improve the identification of victims, including through a strengthened labour inspection regime; (b) ensure effective prosecutions and convictions for trafficking, including, where appropriate, of complicit officials; and (c) provide protection to victims, including by preventing their intimidation during and after investigations and court proceedings. Please report on progress towards establishing an efficient and adequately funded system of assistance and support for all victims of trafficking, irrespective of their willingness to participate in criminal proceedings, including specialized shelters, legal and medical assistance and rehabilitation services. Please indicate the steps taken to ensure victims are made aware of their rights and the support available to them, including through the provision of information in different languages, and measures taken to facilitate victims' access to justice and remedies.

Treatment of persons deprived of their liberty (arts. 7 and 10)

15. With reference to the Committee's previous concluding observations (paras 27-28) and evaluation of the follow-up report to concluding observations (CCPR/C/131/2/add.4), please provide information on measures taken to improve conditions in prisons and detention facilities, with a particular focus on understaffing, overcrowding and inter-prisoner violence. Please include data on the construction of new prison and detention facilities and the use of non-custodial sentences such as electronic monitoring, parole and community service. Please report on steps taken to provide access to an adequate level of healthcare to all persons deprived of their liberty, including in police custody and in psychiatric hospitals and institutional care settings. With regard to conditions in psychiatric hospitals and residential institutions, please report on steps taken to (a) reduce overcrowding (b) improve living conditions, and (c) strengthen capacities of personnel to act in cases of conflict or aggressive behaviour.

Treatment of aliens, including migrants, refugees and asylum seekers (arts. 7, 9, 13 and 24)

16. Please provide information on steps taken to (a) strengthen the capacity of the asylum system to process applications; (b) ensure effective access to asylum procedures for all who intend to seek asylum in the State party, including at Chisinau international airport; and (c) guarantee that asylum applications are assessed within a reasonable time frame and with full respect for due process. Please report on steps taken to ensure that vulnerable categories of asylum seekers, including unaccompanied minors, mothers with children, persons with disabilities and members of ethnic minorities, particularly Roma, are not subjected to discriminatory treatment, intimidation or abuse, including in temporary reception centres. Please report on the legal and policy framework for ensuring all children born on Moldovan territory are issued with birth certification and that every child has a nationality, in accordance with article 24 (3) of the Covenant. Please include information on the status of the pending draft amendment of the citizenship law.

Access to justice, independence of the judiciary, and fair trial (arts. 2 and 14)

17. Recalling the Committee's previous concluding observations (paras. 29-30), please report on measures taken to ensure the proper administration of justice in the State party. Please include information on measures taken to strengthen the integrity and independence of the judiciary and public prosecution service, including measures to strengthen the independence of the Superior Council of Magistracy (CSM) from political interference, clarifying, inter alia, whether objective criteria have been established for the appointment of judges. Please report on measures taken to improve the efficiency of the administration of justice, notably with regard to addressing the reported backlog of cases and delayed enforcement of court decisions. Please also explain how the State party ensures effective access to justice, including access to free legal aid, particularly for those in situations of vulnerability, without discrimination.

Freedom of conscience and religious belief (arts. 2, 18 and 26)

18. Please explain how requiring conscientious objectors to register with a religious or pacifist organisation in order to be recognised is compatible with article 18 of the Covenant. Please clarify whether civilian alternative service would remain available to conscientious objectors in time of general mobilisation or war.

Right to privacy (art. 17)

19. Please indicate the legal safeguards applied to the State party's surveillance regime, in particular as concerns interception of mail, phone and internet communications, and provide information on any independent mechanisms to oversee such surveillance. Please update the Committee on the content and status of the draft laws on the intelligence and security service and on counterintelligence and external intelligence activity, registered by parliament on 17 November 2022. Please comment on allegations that the authorities engage in targeted surveillance of journalists and human rights defenders, and report on any investigations conducted into these cases, their outcomes, and remedies provided to the victims.

Freedom of expression (arts. 19 and 20)

20. With reference to the previous concluding observations (paras. 31-32), please report on progress made in addressing harassment and intimidation of journalists, including through the use of civil defamation laws, and threats made online and in the context of protests. Please indicate measures taken to strengthen the independence of the media, and to ensure that the amendments in 2021 to the Code of Audiovisual Media Services do not compromise media independence or encourage politicization of the media. Please report on measures taken to address hate speech and disinformation and provide detailed information regarding the blocking of a number of media websites and suspension of a number of broadcasting licenses in 2022, including details of the legal bases applied. Please provide information on steps taken to ensure access to publicly-held information free of charge and without undue restrictions or delays.

Right of peaceful assembly (art. 21)

21. Recalling the Committee's previous recommendations (para. 34), please provide information on the legal safeguards that ensure that restrictions to the right of peaceful assembly approved under Order 42 on 13 October 2022 by the Commission for Emergency Situations (CSE), comply with the requirements of the Covenant and General Comment No. 37 (2020) on the right of peaceful assembly. Please provide information on the content and status of the draft law amending Law no. 26/2008 on assemblies and explain how the amendment will effectively safeguard the right of peaceful assembly. Please provide information relating to the reporting period on (a) any protests which have not been allowed or which have been dispersed, in particular protests by the political opposition, including details of the legal basis; (b) detention of and judicial proceedings brought against protesters, and (c) information on any complaints received in relation to the disproportionate use of force by law enforcement officials during protests.

Freedom of association (art. 22)

22. Please indicate steps taken to ensure a safe and enabling environment for non-governmental organisations. Please provide information on measures taken to ensure that non-governmental organizations working to promote and defend human rights are not subject to threats and intimidation by public authorities, including smear campaigns against representatives of such organizations through mass media and on the internet, particularly if they criticize decisions taken by the Government.

Rights of the child (arts. 23, 24 and 26)

23. With reference to the Committee's previous concluding observations (paras. 39-40), please report on measures taken to develop a comprehensive and effective juvenile justice system, including by ensuring (a) that detention and incarceration are used only as a last resort and for the shortest period of time; (b) that adequate reintegration and rehabilitation services are available to children who come into conflict with the law; and (c) that children are able to access appropriate legal assistance. Please provide information on measures taken to protect children from all forms of violence, including domestic and sexual violence, as well as measures to protect children from neglect and exploitation, including forced begging. Please clarify the minimum age for marriage for women and men, and provide information on measures taken to address child marriage.

Rights of minorities (art. 27)

24. Please provide information on measures taken to ensure that ethnic, linguistic and religious minorities, including Roma, are adequately represented in elected bodies and public administration, and are able to meaningfully participate in the conduct of public affairs. Please indicate steps taken to ensure that minorities are able to effectively access public services, including measures taken to strengthen access to education in minority languages and to ensure language is not a barrier to accessing higher education. Please report on progress achieved in addressing the marginalisation of the Roma community and guaranteeing the rights of all minorities, including through implementation of the National Program of support for Roma population 2022 - 2025 and the Program on the implementation of the Strategy for consolidation of interethnic relations in the Republic of Moldova 2017-2027.
