

Note No. 368/2015

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Republic of Malawi presents its compliments to the 62nd Session of the CEDAW and has the honour to address the latter as follows:

The Government of the Republic of Malawi has appointed the attached delegation to represent the Government during the 62nd Session of the CEDAW, which will take place in Geneva, Switzerland, from 3 to 7 November, 2015, and to speak on every occasion they shall be admitted thereto on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Malawi.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Republic of Malawi avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the 62nd Session of the CEDAW the assurances of its highest consideration.

LILONGWE
27 October, 2015

62nd Session of the CEDAW
GENEVA

- Hon. Patricia Kaliati M.P.,
Minister of Gender Children, Disability and Social Welfare,
Leader of the Delegation;
- Dr. Mary Shawa,
Principal Secretary for Gender, Children, Disability and Social Welfare;
- Dr. Esmie Tamanda Kainja,
Chief Director, Ministry of Gender Children, Disability and Social Welfare;
- Fiona Kalemba,
Chief Legislative Council, Ministry of Justice and Constitutional Affairs;
- Peter Msefula,
Director of Gender Affairs for Ministry of Gender Children, Disability and Social Welfare;
- Justin Trevor Hamela,
Principal Gender, Development Officer, Ministry of Gender Children,
Disability and Social Welfare;
- Esther Apoche Itimu,
Senior State Advocate, Ministry of Justice and Constitutional Affairs;
- Grace Wezi Jere,
Malawi Human Rights Commission;
- Chiza Nyirongo,
Chief Law Reform Officer, Law Commission;
- Peggy Nsongazaudzu,
Superintendent, Malawi Police Service;
- Hon. Patricia Shanil Dzimbiri, M.P.
Member Parliament; and
- Hon. Richard William Chimwendo, M.P.,
Member of Parliament.

