The Mission would appreciate the kind assistance of the Secretariat of the Human Rights Committee in facilitating the Montenegrin-English translation by arranging the interpretation booth. The interpretation will be carried out by members of the Delegation of Montenegro indicated above.

It would be also highly appreciated if the separate room in the Palais Wilson could be provided for the consultation of the Delegation.

The Permanent Mission of Montenegro to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.
