Excellency,

In my capacity as Special Rapporteur for Follow-up on Concluding Observations of the Human Rights Committee, I have the honour to refer to the examination of the fifth periodic report of Sweden.

At the end of the 95th session of the Committee held in March 2009, the Committee's concluding observations were transmitted to your Permanent Mission. You may recall that, in paragraph 23 of the concluding observations, the Committee requested that relevant information be provided within one year on the specific areas of concern identified in paragraphs 10, 13, 16 and 17 of the concluding observations.

On 18 March 2010, Sweden provided information on these paragraphs. During its 99th session, held in July 2010, the Committee noted that the information provided regarding the rights of persons with disabilities (paragraph 10) and the fundamental legal safeguards of all persons held in custody (paragraph 13) was largely satisfactory.

While taking note of the cooperativeness of the State party, the Committee also noted that the information provided was incomplete with regard to certain recommendations. On 28 September, some additional and more specific information was requested by my predecessor on the following points:

- (a) The use of diplomatic assurances to facilitate the transfer of persons to a country where they may be at risk of torture or other inhuman or degrading punishment (paragraph 16);
- (b) The detention of asylum-seekers and their right to access adequate information in order to respond to arguments and evidence utilized in their case (paragraph 17)

The Committee also noted that the recommendations regarding the length of the detention of asylum-seekers (paragraph 17) had not been implemented.

During its 101st session, held in March 2011, the Committee noted that this information had not been received.

On 10 May 2011, a letter of reminder was sent to your Permanent Mission to request that the above-mentioned additional information be submitted to the Committee.

At its 102nd session, held in July 2011, the Committee noted that the answer to that request had not been received.

In light thereof and in the spirit of a good understanding and transparency, I should be grateful to meet with you or a representative of your Permanent Mission to discuss the matters set out above. The meeting should be held during the 103rd session of the Committee, which will be held from 17 October to 4 November 2011 at Palais Wilson in Geneva. I look forward to the Permanent Mission's views regarding a mutually convenient time for this meeting. In this regard, you are invited to contact Ms. Albane Prophette-Pallasco, (aprophette@ohchr.org, phone: +41 22 91 79719).

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
