Adoption of concluding observations and other documents

Following the consideration of the States parties' reports during the 10th session, CED will, in a closed meeting, adopt concluding observations that will assist the States parties concerned in the implementation of the Convention. These concluding observations outline positive aspects, principal subjects of concern and the Committee's recommendations on how to address challenges faced by the States parties.

Once the concluding observations have been adopted, the documents will be posted on the CED webpage under the relevant session.

CED will also adopt lists of issues to be transmitted to States parties. Both the lists of issues and the States parties' replies will be posted on the CED webpage under the relevant session.

Civil society reports for the Committee at its sessions

CED welcomes written information, which should be as specific, reliable and objective as possible, from international, regional, national and local organizations. Civil society "alternative reports" which follow the same form of presentation as the reports submitted by the State party concerned are especially welcome. The information/report must identify the submitting organization, as anonymous information is not accepted, and be drafted in non-abusive language. The information must be relevant to the Committee's mandate and the examination of the State party's report. The information should not contain names of victims except if related to public cases or if the consent of the victims or their families is obtained.

All submissions to CED should be:

1. Submitted in English, French or Spanish. As most CED members use English as their working language, documents submitted in French and Spanish should, to the extent possible, be translated into English. Please note that the UN Secretariat does not translate documents submitted by civil society stakeholders.
2. Transmitted to the CED Secretariat in Geneva before 1 December 2015 with respect to States upon which lists of issues will be adopted. The deadline for information on States parties to be examined by the Committee is 12 February 2016. All documents must be submitted in electronic form to ced@ohchr.org stating clearly in the subject of the email the country the submission refer to and the session number. These deadlines allow the Country rapporteurs and other members of CED time to read the reports before the relevant session.

OHCHR does not reproduce civil society documents. Therefore, civil society representatives attending a session may wish to bring 15 hard copies of their documents for distribution at the meeting. Those not attending a session may wish to ensure that 15 hard copies of their documents reach the Secretariat of the Committee in time for the respective session, i.e. at least two weeks in advance.

Informal meetings and lunchtime briefings

Civil society representatives are welcome to attend public meetings of CED as observers, but will not be given the opportunity to address CED during its meetings with the State delegation. Nevertheless, civil society representatives have the possibility of addressing the Committee in formal private sessions (closed meetings) with interpretation. These meetings are set out in the programme of work (see session webpage) and normally take place a day or two before the consideration of the report of the State party concerned.

Informal (without interpretation) briefings may also be organized between civil society representatives and members of CED on the day prior to (or the day of) the examination of the relevant State party report. To find out the schedule of formal and informal meetings you may contact the Secretariat.

There will be a designated room for these briefings.

Please contact the CED Secretariat (mgbianchi@ohchr.org and ced@ohchr.org) before 12 February 2016 to confirm attendance at a formal briefing and/or informal briefing with the members.
