

Permanent Mission of Brazil in Geneva
71 Avenue Louis Casai - 1216 Cointrin
Geneva - Switzerland

OHCHR REGISTRY

13 SEP 2004

Recipients : P. David

V. Delgado

- No. 578

The Permanent Mission of Brazil to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva presents its compliments to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights and has the honour to inform the membership of the Delegation of Brazil to the session of the Committee on the Rights of the Child, which will consider the report of Brazil next 14 September.

Mr. Nilmario Miranda, Secretary of State for Human Rights, Head of the Delegation;

Ms. Patrícia Saboya Gomes, Senator,
Coordinator of the Parliamentary Front on the Child and the Youth;

Mr. Luiz Felipe de Seixas Corrêa,
Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Brazil in Geneva;

Mr. Carlos Antonio da Rocha Paranhos,
Ambassador, Alternate Representative of Brazil in Geneva;

Ms. Denise Paiva, Undersecretary for Promotion of the Rights of the Child and Adolescent, Special
Secretariat for Human Rights;

Mr. Amarildo Baesso, Deputy Undersecretary
for Promotion of the Rights of the Child and Adolescent,
Special Secretariat for Human Rights;

Mr. Carlos Eduardo Moreno Sampaio,
National Institute on Education Research (INEP), Ministry of Education;

Ms. Tereza de Jesus Campos Neta, Director of the Department of Programs and Strategies on Health Assistance, Ministry of Health;

Ms. Margarida Munguba Cardoso, Manager of the Program for Eradication of Child Labor (PETI), Ministry of Social Development;

Ms. Enid Rocha Andrade e Silva, Coordinator of the Social Policy Department, Institute for Applied Economic Research (IPEA), Ministry of Planning;

Ms. Maria Luiza Viotti, Head of the Department of Human Rights and Social Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Relations;

Mr. Antonio Carlos do Nascimento Pedro, Minister Counselor, Permanent Mission of Brazil in Geneva;

Ms. Regiane Mara Gonçalves de Melo, Secretary, Permanent Mission of Brazil in Geneva;

Mr. Christiano Sávio Barros Figueirôa, Secretary, Division of Human Rights, Ministry of Foreign Relations.

The Permanent Mission of Brazil avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights the assurances of its highest consideration.

Geneva, September 8, 2004

Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights
Committee of the Rights of the Child
Geneva