#1661. Alexander Góngora, age 35, died October 24, 2013 in Venezuela. Góngora was the finance manager (directed the "Coordinación Central Económica") of the Cuban medical mission to Venezuela. He died mysteriously after falling from the 4th floor of the building where he lived alone. He arrived alive at the hospital but died reportedly of the head fractures he suffered in the fall. Apparently, he had no personal problems that would explain a suicide. A member of the Cuban Communist Party, he was about to come to the end of his three-year service in Venezuela. Reportedly, he had been recently robbed of sums of money he carried for the business of the Cuban medical mission. His body was transported back to Cuba. Foul play is suspected.
