REFERENCE: DB/follow-up/59/Ghana/69

16 April 2018

Excellency,

In my capacity as Rapporteur on Follow-up on Concluding Observations of the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), I have the honor to refer to the examination of the combined sixth and seventh periodic reports of the Republic of Ghana, at the Committee's fifty-ninth session, held in October 2014. At the end of that session, the Committee's concluding observations (CEDAW/C/GHA/CO/6-7) were transmitted to your Permanent Mission. You may recall that in paragraph 50 on follow-up on the concluding observations, the Committee requested the Republic of Ghana to provide, within two years, written information on the steps taken to implement the recommendations contained in paragraphs 25 and 27 of the concluding observations.

In April 2017, the Committee sent a reminder to the Permanent Representative, observing that the information sought by the Committee had not yet been provided. The Committee sent a second reminder in September 2017.

In the absence of a follow-up report, the Committee invited the Permanent Mission for a meeting in February 2018. During the meeting on 26 February 2018, the Deputy Permanent Representative of Ghana and the alternate rapporteur on follow-up agreed on the submission of a summary of the State party's follow-up report within one month of the reception of this letter.

The Committee looks forward to pursuing the constructive dialogue it has started with the authorities of Ghana on the implementation of the Convention. In this context, the Committee seeks to receive your response within the mutually agreed deadline, and no later than 30 April 2018.

His Excellency
Mr. Ramses Joseph Cleland
Permanent Representative of the Republic of Ghana to the United Nations Office at Geneva
Rue de Moillebeau 56
