

On June 30th in 2010 data from MHWL patients report

Graph No.2 Average length of stay in 2010

Japan 2010 data from MHLW 2011 hospital report others OECD Health Data: Health care utilisation (OECD Library 2012 Nov)

* 2009 data ** 2008 data *** 2007 data

Japan 2010 data from MHLW 2011 hospital report

OECD Health Data: Health care utilisation (OECD Library 2012 Nov)

* 2009 data      ** 2008 data

data from patients report

The number of new forced hospitalization is much different between prefectures

Population data from national census in 2010

2010 data from MHLW eisei gyousei houkoku

Because of the Tohoku earth quake the number of Miyagi includes only the number of Sendai city

Graph No.7 forced hospitalization article 29
the number of new hospitalizwtion in every prefecture

per 10,000 population

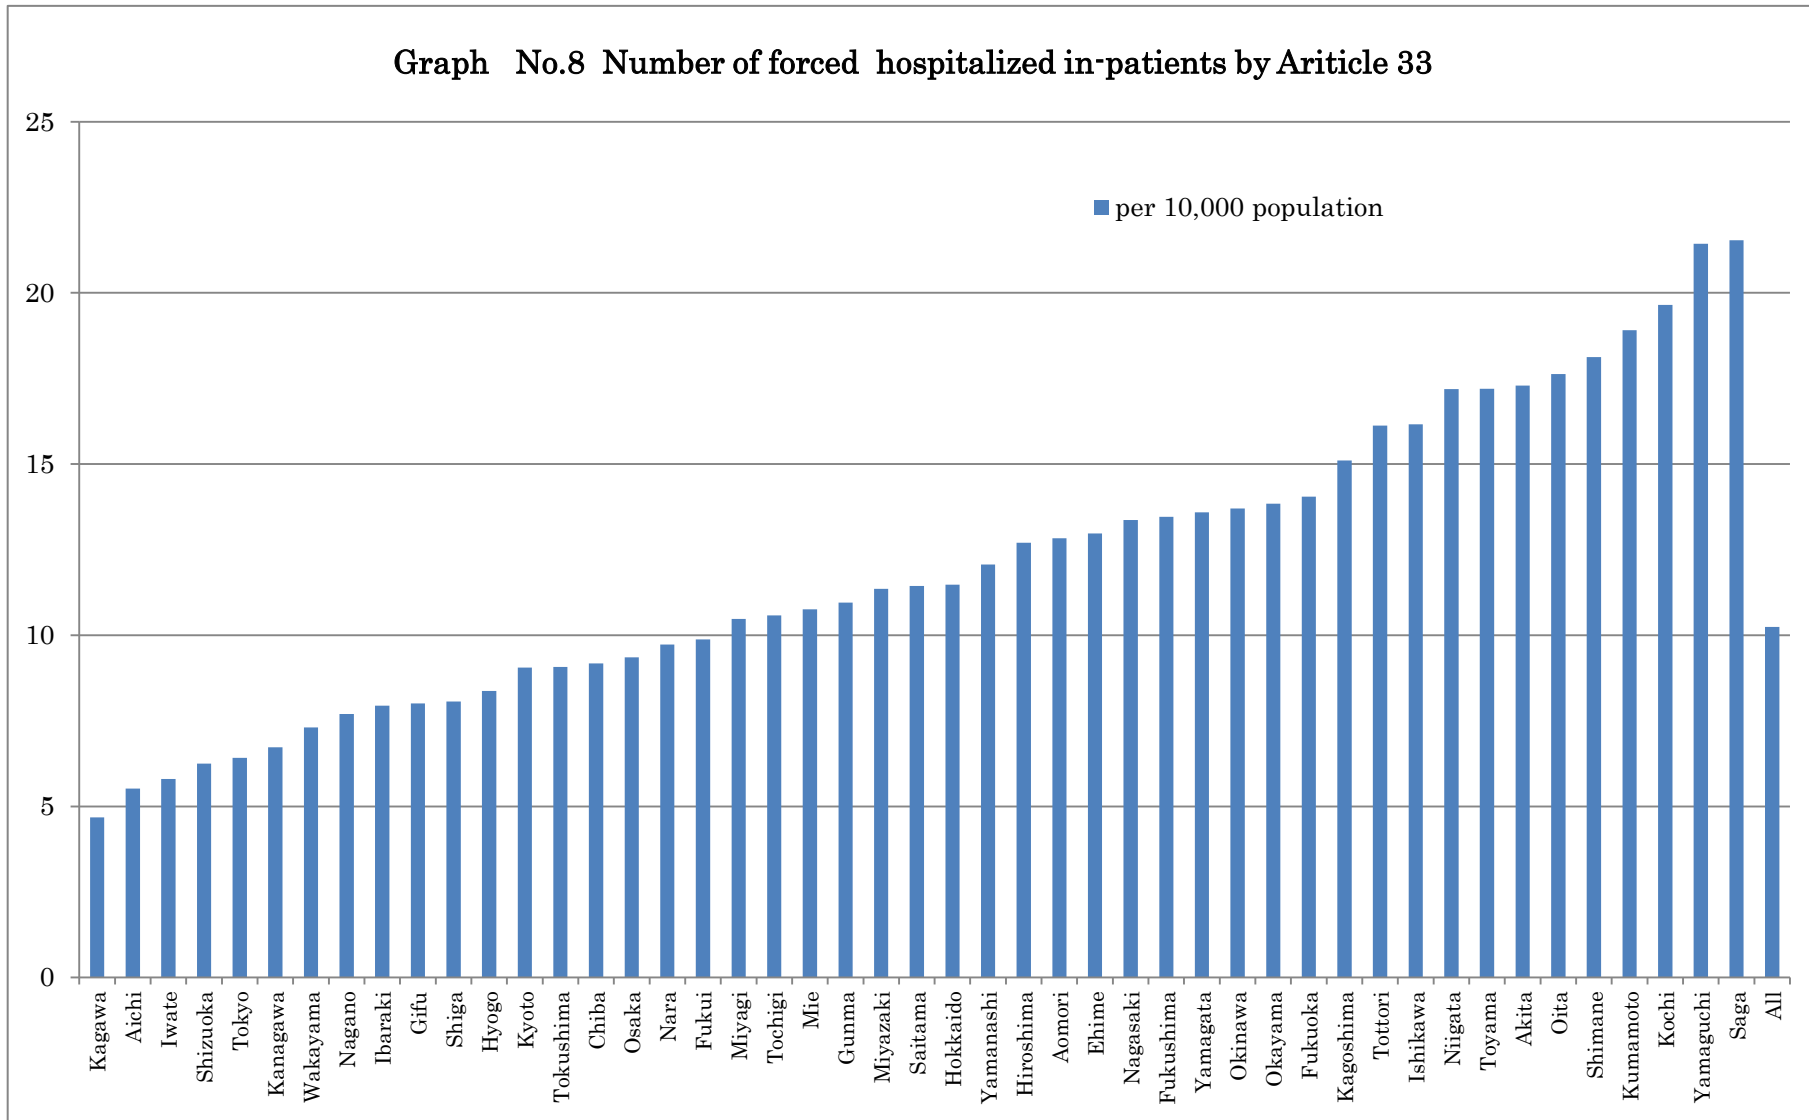

2010 data from MHLW eisei gyousei houkoku Population data from national census in 2010

Because of the Tohoku earth quake the number of Miyagi includes only the number of Sendai city

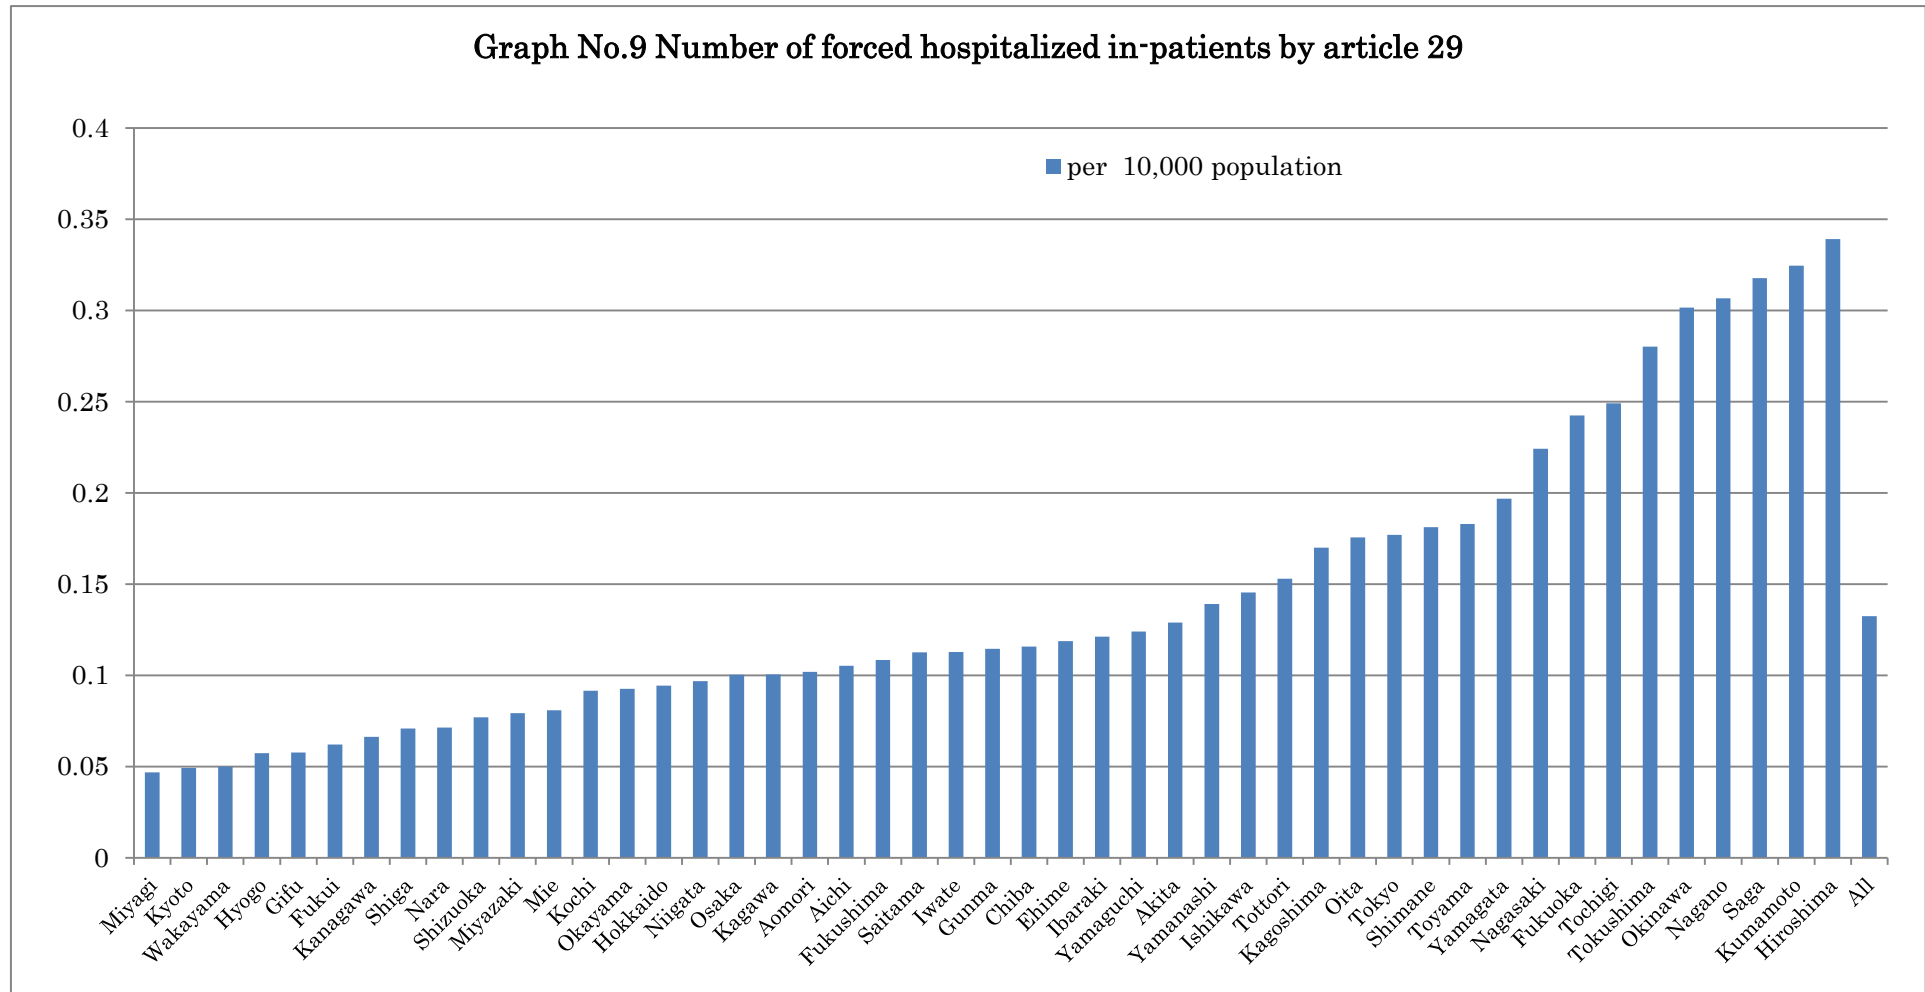

Population data from national census in 2010

Graph No.8 Number of forced hospitalized in-patients by Article 33

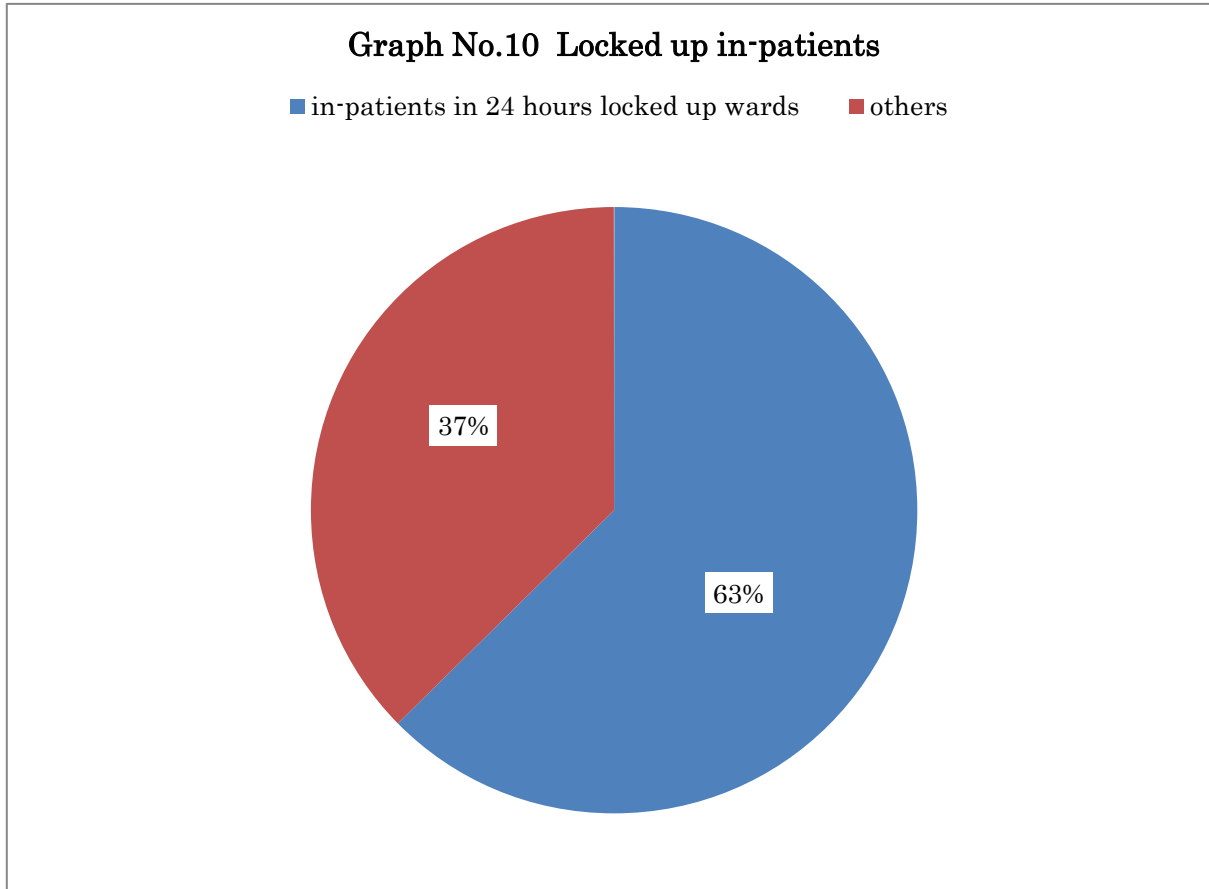

Data from 2010 MHLW Patients report on June 30 Population data from national census in 2010

Data from 2010 MHLW Patients report on June 30

Population data from national census in 2010

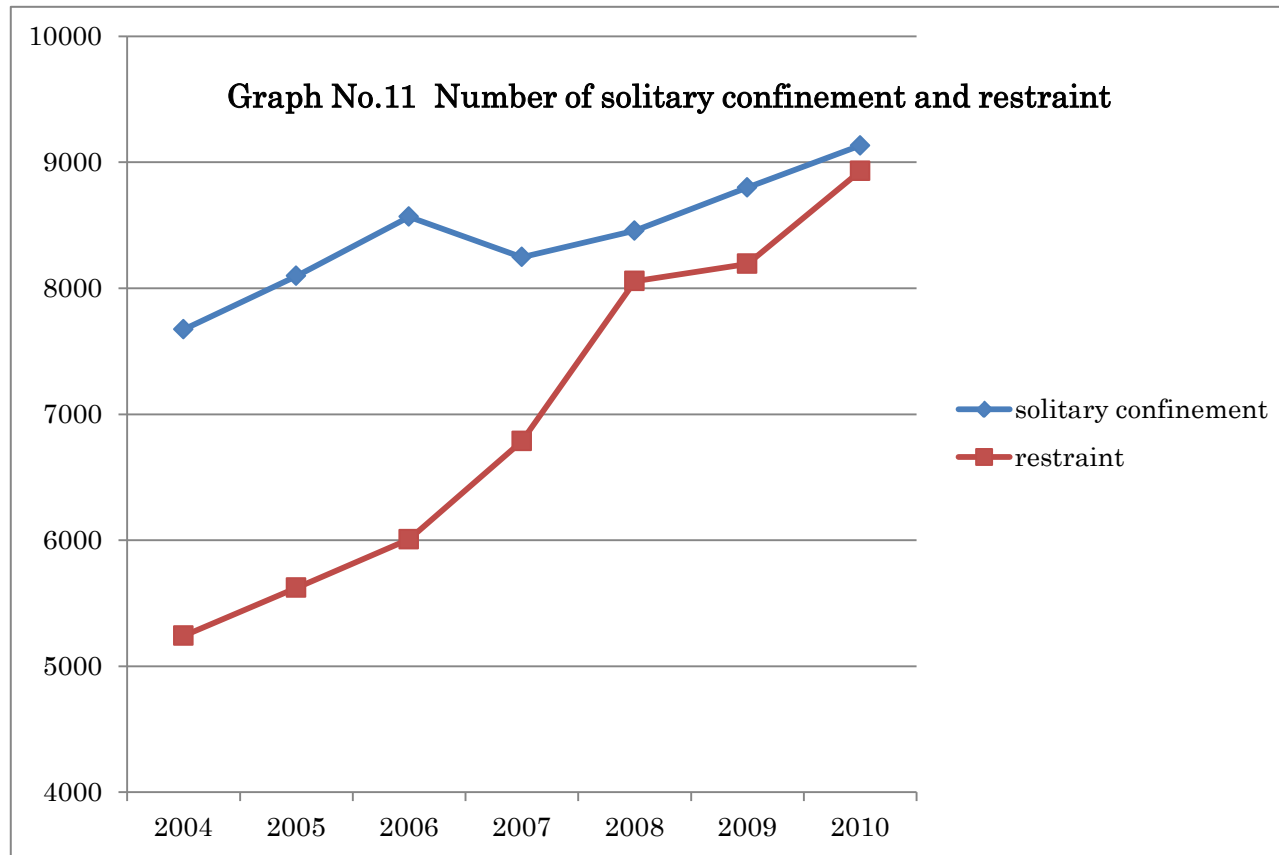

In-patients in 24 hours locked up wards 193,243 persons

Others 115,372 persons

On June 30 in 2010 data from patients report

The number of solitary confinement and restraint are increasing

on June 30 every year

Date from 2004 to 2010 MHLW Patients report on June 30